1. You have given Me much to work with, you have given Me many words, numerous requests; and for that I say thank you and I elevate you and I intercede, I intercede for you, your requests this day. And I come and I call and I conquer; I conquer with vengeance, in equity and wrath and love; My foremost weapon My love. I give you all of Me and all that I have said is yours on plates and platters royal. I love you. Being brought to you now in semi's of building materials in sacrifices of saints who now build My temples not made with hands; into Me seeing, being, doing Me, as Me. Me they are.
2. I love you and I give Me and I thank you for your intercessions, your intercession this day. And name calling, calling the names of My who love Me, who are seeking Me, and interceding for them, your country, you, your president, your leaders, those in authority, those in authority not, so mighty, so little. Yea, in Me see all I have said, all I continue to reveal; and yes hours and hours I give you My flow, My heart, My stance spanning My hands and everything in between. All is revealed, disclosed, and nothing hidden. I love you; I give you Me.
3. Thank you for what you have given Me this day. I give you more, more, manifoldly multiplied into My seed now which I take and spread by My word, My angels, all over My earth; trust Me.
4. See Me, speak Me, and continue to fear Me not, fearing only where I can take you, fearing not man or angst having; yea, fearing only Me, receiving My coals and, yea, giving My coals in such tender love, being Me. I am you are. I love you. Good day.
5. See all I have said and continue to walk in Me, My words pour forth. I love you. Good day. All that I have said comes forth and more. More, more, more I am giving you for you have given Me more, you are giving Me more of your thoughts and processes and your systems of revelation and revelatory thought; you are opening to Me increasingly and yes, yea, I open to you commensurately, synergistically, squared, and cubed (1). See Me. Thank you. All are, all is, they are ready and they come; be ready (2).
6. My power succumbs to no one and no other power for all succumb to My power; for all succumb to My love; My love, My greatest power, My love is My power, the power of My love transcending and transcendent.
7. Teach, train and conquer in the power of My love which now comes forth in grace and glory revealed and increasing transcendence in light of only Me; light of you now, lighting My towers, My beaconing stations, moveable, portable, stationary and all together lovely. I love you and I give you Me. My glory see. I love you.

Footnotes:

1. Squared equals to the second power, and then He says, take all that, cubed, or to the third power.
2. I believe this statement relates, at this moment, to the faculty, staff, and students that are coming to the University of The New Covenant, even as it opens for daily classes this September. Classes will be offered here daily in Tulsa as well as online.
